No. R. 5118—R. M. 74-46-5. It is hereby notified for the information of general public that in supersession of the existing rules contained in para 341 of page 349 of the Revenue Manual, Volume I, regarding the manufacture of earth salt, the following rules are issued on the lines of the new policy enunciated by the Government of India, liberalising the production of salt on a small scale, with a view to make the country attain self-sufficiency in this vital commodity in as short a time as possible.

2. Henceforth, individuals or groups may freely produce salt in any land to which they have lawful access for this purpose and by whatever process they desire, i.e., construction of pans and solar evaporation or boiling of brine or scrapping or excavation of saline earth or natural formations of salt provided that the total area of land covered by the salt works set up by any individual or group is not more than 10 acres. No licences are needed and no applications for licence need be sent to any Government Authority in such cases. Under the Government's new policy, salt produced in units covering not more than 10 acres will not be subject to any restrictions by way of storage, transport and sale.

3. Government, however, reserve the right to take suitable preventive measures against the sale of unwholesome salt for human consumption.
